“Marianne, you’re no good. No good!” Said the father. He was very angry.

“Oh,John,don’t talk to her like that”,said Marianne’s mother,Mrs Lee.” she is our daughter”.

“I know that she is our daughter” replied Mr Lee. «We’ve looked after her for eighteen years, haven’t we?”.

“well,what has she done for us in those eighteen years?”Asked Mr Lee.”Girls usually go out to work,or help their mothers at home.but not Marianne!Has she cooked one dinner for us in her life?does she wash the clothes for us?does she clean the house?never!.”

“but she’s a very clever girl”,said Mrs Lee.”She paints beautiful pictures. You mustn’t say that she is no good!.”

“What can we do with pictures?asked Mr Lee.”we can’t eat pictures.we haven’t got enough money.we can’t keep Marianne at home any longer.she must go out to work or find a husband.!”

“There isn’t any work in this place”,Marianne said quietly.”I don’t want a husband.i only want to be alone and to paint pictures”.

“but your father is right”her mother said kindly. «we can’t keep you at home any longer.Many boys want to marry you.why don’t you marry Paul?he loves you.”

“He is stupid,”Shouted Marianne.She got angry,took her bag and run out of the house.

You are the editor of your school magazine and you received the following letter from one of the students in your school.

I am 15 years old and I still feel controlled by my parents. They never let me go to night parties. To make things worse, they always refuse my wearing style. I am worried about my relationship with them. What should I do?

The following hints may help you:
