Robert and his friend, Mike, went to the amusement park for the day. The boys were so excited to try the whirl around ride.  The boys were hungry so Mike's mom gave them tickets to get cotton candy, humbergers, and some popcorn. While getting the food, Mike saw a boy about his age standing at the whirl around ride.  "I wonder why he doesn't go on the ride?" asked Robert. "Maybe he's scared." Answered Mike. The boy was by himself and looked poor. His shirt and jeans were torn and dirty. Even his hair was messy. After the boys finished their food, they walked over to Mike's mom and told her about the boy. "Can we do something to help him?" asked Mike. "What do you want to do?" his mom asked. "Let's give him the extra tickets we have, and we can give him a ticket for a hamburger." Mike and Robert went over to the boy and said they had some extra itcket, and he could have them.
